

Gender Hub, 19th May 2015 – Agenda

Dual Career Management. Locally and internationally

- What organisations and women can do to increase the number of women in international roles
- Which competencies successful women leaders have in common when taking up international careers
- How international work experience can work to your advantage, speeding up your career
- How to act as a couple when confronted with dual careers, how to support each other as a couple
- Risks of dual careers or working abroad

Speakers

- Caroline Kersten, Leverage HR, co-author of “Wordly Women – The New Leadership Profile”

Caroline is consultant, trainer, and coach at Leverage HR, a boutique talent development firm which is dedicated to increase the number of women leaders in the talent pipeline of organizations through innovative approaches, such as fast-tracking women through international work and retaining women during critical professional transitions. She recently co-authored ‘Worldly Women – The New Leadership Profile’, which offers ground breaking information about global leadership behavior that is shared among female expatriate leaders.

- Martine VEYSSIERE, Vice President Career Management, Total
- Maija Van Langendock, HR - Change and Diversity Lead for EMEA Global IT, Cargill

Agenda

- 12:00 Arrival and Lunch
- 12:30 Introduction by Isabella Lenarduzzi (JUMP) & Isabelle Van Cauwenberge (Axiom)
- 12:40 Expert: Caroline Kersten, Leverage HR and co-author of “Worldy Women”
- 13:00 Testimonial: Martine VEYSSIERE, Vice President Career Management, Total
- 13:20 Testimonial: Maija Van Langendock, HR - Change and Diversity Lead for EMEA Global IT, Cargill
- 13:40 Networking break
- 14:00 Panel Debate with the 3 speakers
- 15:00 Wrap-up
- 15:30 Close of the Hub Session

Venue

Tuesday 19th May – 12 :00 to 15 :30

Total, 52 rue de l'Industrie - 52 Industriestraat, 1040 Bruxelles - Brussels