Digital transformation: How to turn risk into opportunity for gender equality

How will digital transformation revolutionise business and impact gender equality?

How can organisations build gender balanced teams, given that so few women are trained in STEM*?

How can they identify internal talent, train women for roles in digital transformation and retain them?

How do we ensure that digital technology and artificial intelligence used to enhance customer experience and employee productivity do not reinforce biases against women?

How can the new way of work be an opportunity for inclusion rather than a risk for well-being?

How can we build an inclusive digital economy and corporate culture?

This JUMP Forum is about helping all companies, whether they are in the tech sector or not, develop an inclusive approach to digital transformation.

What participants say

The JUMP Forum is a must-attend in my calendar. Every time I go to the event, I am surprised how many new insights I get and how it evolves my perspective in the field of diversity and Inclusion. The speakers stretch my thoughts, and the workshops allow me to develop concrete plans to implement in my own organisation.

Two years ago, I attended a fascinating session on the four stages of women's careers that was the seed for our female talent sponsorship program in our R&D organisation in our Brussels site, and at this year's JUMP Forum, the workshop around making men a part of the inclusion discussion has given me new insights about how to train the importance of inclusion from early in everyone's career.

Having the JUMP Forum with so many people from different organisations also leads to rich perspectives and insights, and even small tips that would be much more difficult to come by from purely internal discussions.

I feel it's vitally important for men, especially those in leadership positions, to attend forums like JUMP. It gives the opportunity to spend time to gain insights it would otherwise be very difficult to gain, and to be able to turn those insights into concrete actions, again with the time to think, reflect and discuss those potential actions with others at JUMP who are thinking about the same topics.

DAVID INGRAM
R&D DIRECTOR, PROCTER & GAMBLE

Une organisation parfaite, une très bonne ambiance, des messages puissants : oser, changer, évoluer

When an organisation, a platform like JUMP comes together, you have incredible people getting together that will be doing amazing things. So this is where change begins and each one of us is responsible for this.

Un formidable vecteur de sensibilisation, de bonnes pratiques, pour faire progresser l'égalité hommes-femmes en entreprise

JUMP Forum is a brilliant place for me to network and to meet other people but also really to hear the latest ideas and the latest thinking. I think JUMP has a real touch with the latest inspiration and the latest stories so you can really see here where the field is going

Absolument fondamental pour avancer la place des femmes dans l'entreprise

It's a great atmosphere, it's a great Forum, it's a great programme
